L. L. ODETTE INVESTED AS FIRST HONOURARY FELLOW OF ST. MICHAEL'S

At the Baccalaureate Mass in St. Basil's church on the morning of the St. Michael's Convocation 12 June, Mr. L.L. Odette, Chairman of Eastern Construction, was presented by Richard Alway 6T2, Warden of Hart House and Chairman of St. Michael's Capital Campaign, for investiture as the first Honourary Fellow of the University of St. Michael's College. Father James McConica, C.S.B., presided at the ceremony and admitted the candidate to the Fellowship. In his presentation Warden Alway outlined the career of the former student of St. Michael's, noting his dedication to his family and the Church, his success in the business world, his encouragement and support of modern Canadian art, his extensive volunteer work for several secular and church-related charitable organizations, and other aspects of his impressive record of public service. He underlined Mr. Odette's interest in education and his generous benefactions to several educational projects. He made special reference to the active role Mr. Odette is playing in the St. Michael's College Capital Campaign, indicating his long association with and support of the Basilian Fathers in their work in Toronto and Windsor. Warden Alway recognized with particular gratitude the generosity of Mr. Odette and his brother Mr. Ed Odette that made possible the refurbishing and redecorating of what is now known as the Odette Student Centre.

After donning the newly-designed Fellow's gown, Mr. Odette signed the College Registry and then joined his family, present in the church for this very special occasion.

Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies Celebrates Important Anniversaries

By Father Martin Dimnik, C.S.B.
Secretary and Superior PIMS

AN INVITATION TO A PONTIFICAL CELEBRATION

A half century ago (18 October 1939), responding to a petition signed by every Catholic bishop in Canada, a papal charter of recognition was granted to a distinctive North American institution located at St. Michael's College in Toronto. This institution, the only Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies in the world, is now a globally renowned centre for scientific research and teaching on that long period of history out of which came such important intellectual developments as Thomistic philosophy and such modern institutions as universities and parliaments.

PIMS will celebrate the golden jubilee of the granting of the pontifical charter in a number of ways. For example, the Institute's name will be incised in Latin above its main entrance, and the students of PIMS are preparing an anniversary volume to

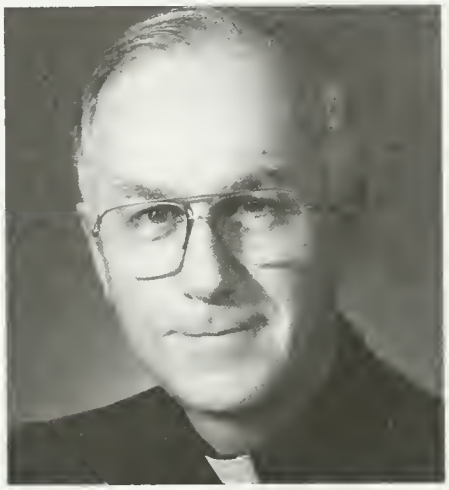
On 1 January 1989, Father Richard Allard, C.S.B., became the College Registrar. Father Allard came to St. Michael's from the position of Rector of the Basilian Fathers' Mission Centre in Sugar Land, Texas, and Assistant Procurator for the Basilian Missions in South Texas, Mexico, Colombia and Niger.

A native of Syracuse, New York, and graduate of the University of Western Ontario through Assumption University of Windsor, Fr. Allard is well prepared for his new task by his active priestly ministry, his graduate studies in North America and France, his broad teaching experience, and the administrative positions involving academic and personal counselling he has held in Basilian high schools and in the University of St. Thomas in Houston, Texas. His experience and talent are central to his present duties. Father Allard, with the advice of his predecessor Father Richard Donovan, C.S.B., has taken up his varied and complicated responsibilities with remarkable calm, comprehension, and competence; the administration, students, staff and faculty are in gratified wonder at the ease with which he has been able to meet the many challenges of his new post.



Fr. Richard Allard, C.S.B., our new College Registrar.

The alumni welcome him to the St. Michael's family and thank him for his willingness to take on one of the most demanding, important and influential roles in the College.

The Honourable John G. O'Driscoll 5T1 to Chair Search Committee for New St. Michael's President

At its April meeting Father James McConica informed the Collegium of the University of St. Michael's College, the chief governing body of St. Michael's, that he would not be available for a second term of office when his present term ends on 30 June 1990. Fr. McConica explained that the items of the agenda he envisaged for himself will have been dealt with or be well in hand by the expiration of his first term. He outlined other reasons for his decision, stressing his conviction that the time was right for a President who could have two terms, not just one, to build on what has been accomplished up to this point in the history of St. Michael's.

Understandably, the Collegium received this announcement with regret and only after much further discussion moved to establish procedures to find a successor. With the approval of the Superior General of the Basilian Fathers, and of the Collegium in its 30 May meeting, notices advertising the position have appeared in national academic bulletins and in the Basilian Newsletter; heads of other academic institutions have been notified and a Search Committee struck. The Committee is composed of:

1. The heads of the four St. Michael's divisions:
   Professor William Dunphy, Principal, St. Michael's College;
   Father Michael Fahey, S.J., Dean, Faculty of Theology;
   Dr. Mimi Marrocco, Director, Continuing Education;
   Monsignor Edward Synan, Acting-Praeses, Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies.
2. A representative of the alumni:
   The Honourable John G. O'Driscoll 5T1, Justice of the Supreme Court of Ontario.
   Justice O'Driscoll will chair the Committee.
3. The Registrar:
   Father Richard Allard, C.S.B., who is also designated as the representative of the Superior General of the Basilian Fathers.
4. A delegate of the Superior General of the Basilian Fathers:
   Father Richard Allard, C.S.B., see above, #3.
5. A student:
   Mr. Steve Monte, President of the St. Michael's College Student Union.
6. A member of the administrative staff:
   Mr. Michael Powers, Acting Bursar, University of St. Michael's College.
7. A member of the St. Michael's College Basilian Community:
   Father Donald Finlay, C.S.B., Superior.
8. Two members of the faculty:
   Mariel O'Neill-Karch, Professor, Department of French;
   Sister Mechtilde O'Mara, C.S.J., Professor, Department of Classics.

The Committee will submit to the Collegium a short list of three candidates in alphabetical order. It is hoped that the Collegium will be able to make its recommendation to the Superior General of the Basilian Fathers by the end of October. By the provincial law of Ontario, the Superior General appoints the President, by custom on the advice of the Collegium after receiving the report of the Search Committee.

PROFESSOR LISA SOWLE CAHILL TO GIVE 1989 JOHN M. KELLY THEOLOGY LECTURE NOV. 7

The Kelly Lecture Committee has again been able to bring an outstanding theologian to the St. Michael's campus. The Kelly Lecture series was established and funded by alumni and friends of St. Michael's to honour the role played by the late Fr. John M. Kelly, C.S.B., in the development of the academic study of Theology at St. Michael's.

Professor Lisa Sowle Cahill is Professor of Christian Ethics in the Department of Theology of Boston College. She has presented as the title of her lecture, "Committed Love and Parenthood: Some Questions for Sexual and Medical Ethics."

Even a brief review of Professor Cahill's academic career provides evidence of the research and strong theological preparation and reflection that richly qualifies her to speak on this topic. She received her B.A. degree in Theology from Santa Clara University, and her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Chicago Divinity School. Her areas of special interest are method in theological ethics, especially in the Roman Catholic natural law tradition; the use of Scripture in Christian ethics; sexual ethics; medical ethics; feminist ethics; and the history of Christian ethics. As noted above, she is on the faculty of Boston College and was Visiting Scholar at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics, Georgetown University, in 1986.

Professor Lisa Sowle Cahill 1989 Kelly Lecturer.

Author of Between the Sexes: Toward a Christian Ethics of Sexuality, and, with Thomas A. Shannon, Religion and Artificial Reproduction: An Inquiry into the Vatican Instruction on Human Life, Professor Cahill has also published approximately forty scholarly essays in books and journals, including Theological Studies, Journal of Religious Ethics, Journal of Medicine and Philosophy, and Law, Medicine and Health Care. She also serves in editorial capacities for several journals. Among her many scholarly addresses are the Earl Lectures, Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley (1983), the Bellarmine Lecture, St. Louis University (1987), the Moreau Lecture, King's College, Wilkes-Barre (1988), and the Distinguished Lecture Series on Jesuit Education, Georgetown University. Professor Cahill has served as a theological consultant to the United States bishops on marriage and divorce, and in their preparations for the Synod on the Laity and their pastoral document on AIDS. She has also held offices in the American Academy of Religion, the Society of Christian Ethics, the Catholic Theological Society of America, and the International Study Group in Bioethics of the International Federation of Catholic Universities.

Professor Cahill's Kelly Lecture will be in the Assembly Hall, Brennan Hall, 7 November at 8:00 P.M. The lecture is complimentary.

Mozart's "The Magic Flute" and the Magic of Father Owen Lee, C.S.B.

St. Michael's alumni and friends were again treated to a rich and rewarding experience by Father Owen Lee, C.S.B. 5T3, of the Classics Department and internationally respected opera commentator and analyst. Over one hundred members of the Alumni Association, the Opera Club of Toronto and the Toronto Mozart Society were present in Brennan Lounge, Odette Centre, on Sunday afternoon 12 March to hear Father Lee speak on Mozart's The Magic Flute, one of the Canadian Opera Company's productions this year. With the same insight and easy command of the musical, symbolic and literary aspects that mark his 'Live from the Met' presentations, he dealt with the curious symbiosis of Catholicism, Masonry and other elements in Mozart's opera. Although he did not accompany his analysis with piano illustrations, he did provide vocal examples of some of the points he was making.

It was a pleasant afternoon that included an excellent talk, the opportunity for alumni to mingle, and fine refreshment. Father Lee's high school companion, Fr. Robert Madden, C.S.B. 5T2, introduced him, and the President of the Toronto Mozart Society expressed the gratitude of all present.

We look forward to the next time!!!

Fr. Own Lee, C.S.B., answers a question during intermission; he is used to that!

The Varsity Fund Story: From Success to Success. Thank you!

The history of the St. Michael's Varsity Fund is a success story—continued success achieved because of the gratitude, generosity and loyalty of the College's alumni and friends; also because of their continued pride in St. Michael's as a Catholic College which provides one of the premier educational experiences in North America.

The 1988-89 Varsity Fund story can be told using those same words: success, generosity, loyalty, pride. But the pride of the alumni and friends should be centred not only on the College, but also on themselves. The 1988-89 Varsity Fund presented a very special challenge. It was the year in which the Varsity Fund goal set by the Alumni Board was higher than ever before: $525,000, and it was the year in which St. Michael's began its $2.4 million Capital Campaign. "Be prepared to lose on the Varsity Fund," we were told. The experience of some other U of T constituencies underlined that warning; their Varsity Fund Campaigns suffered because of their Capital Campaign efforts. The College's faith in you was not shaken—and what happened? You came through again! The 1989-90 Varsity Fund story is another success story. We reached our goal; the Christianity and Culture programme will receive its necessary funding, as will our programme in Celtic Studies; many student events and activities assisted by the Varsity Fund can continue; the Writing Lab and Computer Centre will be staffed; many of the new books necessary for courses and student research will be on the shelves of the J. M. Kelly Library; we are closer to being able to fund a St. Michael's Chair in Christian Philosophy; the chaplaincy can offer programmes to reach more students. The list could go on.

And lo and behold, the St. Michael's Capital Campaign story is, as you can read in this issue, a success story too. Once again you have made your College a leader and the envy of the University of Toronto! Thank you!

I mentioned above that the list of spiritual, academic, cultural, athletic, and social programmes, events, and activities assisted by the Varsity Fund goes on—so do those needs. That is why you have once again received, or soon will again receive, the appeal for the St. Michael's 1989-90 Varsity Fund. Some of you have already made your 1989-90 Varsity Fund gift; we are grateful. We have a long way to go!

The Alumni Board has set the 1989-90 goal at $550,000, an increase of only $25,000 over last year. This was done in recognition of the obligations to the College's Capital Campaign many of you have assumed. The increase does not even cover the inflation rate in Toronto. The College will continue to economize and trim budget fat; it has that obligation to you. But we need your 1989-90 Varsity Fund gift if the programmes, activities, and events outlined above are to develop and enable St. Michael's to be the distinctive Catholic College of which you can continue to be proud. $550,000 — Let's do it.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN OVER THE TOP

By Maude McCarty,
Director, Capital Campaign

When the Capital Campaign Committee met in early 1988 to finalize strategy for the first such fund drive in over thirty-five years, its members had reason to have confidence. The twenty-seven year history of the Varsity Fund gave clear witness to the loyalty and generosity of the alumni, friends, faculty and staff of St. Michael's. Year after year the College had been a leader in the University of Toronto in annual giving. But could even that kind of interest and support respond successfully to a Capital Campaign appeal for $2.4 million and the Varsity Fund appeal for $525,000? On 8 June, just eighteen months after that 1988 meeting referred to above, Richard Alway 6T2, Capital Campaign Chairman, provided the Campaign Committee with a very positive answer to that question. He reported a pledged total of $4.2 million. The Committee's confidence and the College's faith in its alumni, friends, faculty,staff and students were once more strongly affirmed by this wholehearted response to the Capital Campaign and their traditional support of the Varsity Fund, whose 1988-90 goal was achieved. Father James McConica, C.S.B., President of St. Michael's, remarked, "1988-89 will be recorded in our history as a year in which the past and present work of the College received the strongest sign of appreciation and approbation from those who know the College best; it is a year in which St. Michael's was given dramatic and practical aid and encouragement to continue its important work to the benefit of future generations. 1988-89 is a year in which our constituency has made an emphatic statement that underlines its determination to see the immediate and long-range goals of the College realized. The entire St. Michael's family has reason to be grateful and the right to be proud." The Campaign Chairman noted, "The success of the Campaign is extremely encouraging; it means we are setting a base for the future of St. Michael's that will recognize the absolutely central role of our alumni. It is those of us who have benefitted from the College in the past, in terms of formal education and personal development, who must provide the resources to ensure St. Mike's will be there to serve future generations of students."

Campaign Chairman Richard Alway, Warden of Hart House. Mr. Alway was recently appointed to the Order of Canada.

The President and the Chairman drew attention to the role the students have played in the Campaign. They pointed out that the students had not only pledged over $220,000, but also contributed significantly to the successful phone-mail phase of the Capital Campaign which has so far raised over one-quarter of a million dollars in one-time gifts and multi-year pledges. From March through July St. Michael's students contacted over five thousand alumni to ask their support for the Campaign and answer questions about the College. This proved successful in its financial benefits to the Campaign, and in its strengthening of the personal contact between the College and the alumni.

As you know, the two specific projects of the Campaign are intended to enrich our teaching resources. The first is a new academic complex consisting of new construction designed to house fifty faculty offices, and renovation of an existing coach-house to accommodate a large lecture hall and two seminar rooms. As reported earlier, the St. Michael's portion of the renovation costs will be covered entirely by the Campaign gift of the Sam Sorbara Charitable Foundation. The second project is the completion of the third and fourth floors of the John M.Kelly Library in order to relieve congestion and provide new and accessible space for expanding archives and other valuable special collections. When the planning for the Campaign began over two years ago,the total cost of construction of both projects was established at $4 million, which meant that if St. Michael's raised $2.4 million, the University would match it with $1.6 million.

The success of the Campaign to date means that these projects will become reality. At present $1 million is in hand. Eighty percent of our total is in multi-year pledges. The fulfilment of the pledges and further contributions are crucial to the ultimate success of the Campaign: our ability to meet our share of the construction costs and the other costs involved in the final completion of both projects. So, although our Capital Campaign is a success, it is not over. The Capital Campaign Office will continue to canvass potential donors from whom we have not yet heard, and will administer the all-important fulfillment of the multi-year pledges.

The St. Michael's family has done well; we continue to be the pace-setters for the University of Toronto, but our

A View from Under the New Hood

By Wendy Brown 8T9

St. Michael's College class of '89 could not have asked for a more perfect day for Convocation than 12 June 1989. The weather was beautiful: sunny and warm but not humid. The number of guests and students was impressive; according to one faculty member, this year's attendance was the largest in a long time.

The day began with Mass at St. Basil's Church: the church filled to capacity. Many St. Michael's professors joined with the graduands in the procession into the church. Before the Mass began Mr. L.L. Odette was invested as the first Honorary Fellow of the College. It was fitting that this ceremony be part of our graduation celebration since Mr. Odette has taken great interest in St. Michael's, and the Odette Student Centre plays such an important role in our undergraduate life. Father Allard, St. Mike's new Registrar, was the homilist.

Following the mass there was a short alumni-sponsored coffee-and-donut reception in the Odette Student Centre. This was the first of several opportunities for parents, students and professors to meet, chat, and eat.

After much running around to rent gowns and hoods, the members of the Graduating Class filed into Convocation Hall at 2:30. The Governing Council, the staff, the Chancellor and the Presidents of U of T and St. Michael's then entered looking almost regal in their gowns of many and varied colours. After extending greetings and congratulations, President George Connell presented this year's honourary graduand, J.J. Barnicke, to the Chancellor. Dr. Barnicke addressed the Graduating Class, reflecting on the various aspects of his academic life and business career. Dr. Barnicke's continuing interest in and dedication to the University of Toronto were clearly evident. He spoke with such sincerity that it was impossible, as a graduand, not to be inspired. This inspiration was then combined with a feeling of accomplishment (and relief?) as each of us was admitted to the coveted U of T degree.

Once again it was time to eat and mingle at Hart House after the ceremony. And then it was across Queen's Park (what a familiar trip!) to St. Mike's for the Awards Ceremony and yet another reception, again sponsored by the alumni. Many gold medals were awarded in recognition of achievements in a variety of subjects. This year's Principal's Medal was presented to Sarah E. Cheetham by Principal Dunphy.

As a graduate of the class of 8T9 I can say simply, it was a wonderful day. What better way to end the undergraduate experience than to share the achievement of a degree with all those who supported and guided us along the way?

Meet the Weilers! Robert 6T2, Joseph 6T9, John 8T9, Paul 6T0 (proud father), and Bernie 3T1 (prouder father and grandfather!)

John 6T3 and Eleanor 8T9 McGrath.

Micheline White 8T9 and Julienne Ouellette White 6T1. Mother and daughter won the gold medal in English—in the family.

Peter Ryan 6T0, Greg Ross 8T?, Patty Ann Ryan 8T9, Patricia Mallon Ryan 6T0 and Mrs. Mallon.

1989 Principal's Medal Winner

In 1978, the family of former Principal L.E. Lynch established an annual award to be given to that graduating student who had best exemplified the spirit or ethos of St. Michael's College during his or her undergraduate years. The award is in the form of a large, solid silver medal, designed by one of the world's best known medalists, Canada's Dora de Pedrey Hunt. The honoured recipient is chosen by the Principal in consultation with a representative advisory committee.

This year's winner is Sarah Cheetham, a Toronto resident who came to St. Michael's from Loretto Abbey as an Ontario Scholar. From her very first year she plunged into the life of the College and, while keeping up her studies, has served on the Day Students Advisory Committee, the Student Union, the College Council's Personnel and Departmental Liaison Committee. She was also editor-in-chief of the campus bulletin of upcoming events, worked regularly with the Chaplaincy and was this year's organizer of the Double Blue Formal Dance. And these form only part of the list of her involvements in the life of St. Mike's.

Indeed, a worthy recipient!

Alumni Retreat, May 1989

By Alfred Graham 6T2

I'm sure the twenty participants in the Alumni Retreat on May 13, 1989, would agree unanimously that the experience was without qualification a success. St. Michael's campus, luxuriant with emerging spring foliage that played host to colourful, chirping avian migrants, provided a perfect setting for a day of meditation, prayer and liturgy.

Two talks by Father Walter Principe provided the focus for the group's reflections. His theme, "Life in the Holy Spirit as brothers and sisters of Jesus, sons and daughters of the Father in the Unity of the Church", seemed especially appropriate on the Vigil of Pentecost.

Father Principe drew on the rich and inspiring sources in scripture, the theological traditions and the most recent statements of the Church's Synod on the Laity for a stimulating opening synthesis that was both a refresher course and updating in the theology of the laity.

This theology emphasizes the Church as "The People of God" who communally and as individuals fulfil shared ministries through worship, witness to Christ in the world and as servants of one another and all creation. This community is drawn together and sustained by its faith in a God who is loving, compassionate and steadfast; this God who revealed himself to Israel and to all men in Jesus. (Exodus. John)

Father Principe followed this with some practical suggestions and personal reflections about day-to-day "life in the spirit." His remarks focused on the presence of Jesus to all history, continual conversion from false security, and the uniqueness of each individual's spirituality and gifts. The tone was encouraging, positive and realistic.

An afternoon liturgy which celebrated the Feast of Pentecost was followed by a cheerful, delicious supper in the Canada Room. St. Michael's cuisine has been updated too! The retreat concluded with a lively discussion during which the group shared reflections on the day. Father Principe's theological sorties had not missed their mark.

A vote of thanks and confidence is owed to Marcella Tanzola and Bill Reid, organizers of this event, with the hope that the Alumni Retreat becomes a regular event on the Alumni Association's calendar.

work is not yet done. Indeed, the work of an enterprise like St. Michael's is never done if it is to remain alive and vibrant in its efforts to maintain and enhance great traditions, meet emerging needs,and keep pace with and, more important, influence new developments in education, our culture and our society. There is always much to be done, but do not forget all the alumni, friends, faculty, staff and students have accomplished thus far. As Father McConica remarked, "The St. Michael's family has reason to be grateful and the right to be proud."

ALUMNI PLAY IMPORTANT ROLE IN SMC STUDENT DRAMA

Drama is alive and well and original at the St. Michael's Theatre this year, and alumni are taking an important part in it all. Alumni Mike McCabe 7T0, the Labriola brothers, Tony 7T3 and Nick 7T8, with teaching colleague Walter Rubino, were the judges in last winter's first annual one-act play contest. Their unanimous choice for first prize, out of the seventeen entries submitted by undergraduates from various colleges, was "Raw to the Bone" by Cathleen Bond, an English specialist entering her fourth year at Victoria College. The play is described by its author as a fast-paced farce, a satire on consumerism in which two "yuppies" are stripped of everything, leaving them "raw to the bone."

The first prize is what every aspiring dramatist dreams of: PRODUCTION. "Raw to the Bone" will be presented as an added attraction to the festivities of Homecoming and U of T Day, Saturday 21 October. All alumni and friends are welcome. There will be two productions: 1:00 P.M. and 4:00 P.M. in the St. Michael's Theatre, Alumni Hall, 121 St. Joseph St. Many of you may not yet have seen the 250-seat theatre that was incorporated into Alumni Hall as part of its renovations in 1983; you will be pleasantly surprised.

The alumni judges strengthed an important link to the vitality of college theatre of years ago, and we look forward to a continuing alumni involvement. In addition, Caroline DiGiovanni 7T0, alumni representative on the College Theatre Committee and doctoral student in the U of T Drama Centre, not only assembled the panel of judges for the contest, but is also directing the winning entry's production and acting as resource person to our undergraduates. Nick Labriola, whose professional experience includes a stint at Stratford, will be another alumnus on the resource team.

Yes, the tradition of strong undergraduate theatre is alive and well at St. Mike's. With alumni support and the enthusiasm generated to date, the new developments and direction are bound to prove successful and beneficial for the College.

REMEMBER ALUMNI THEATRE NIGHTS: the "new tradition" of buffet-theatre nights will continue for this year's student productions. The first such night is Saturday 18 November. Two one act plays will be performed, Eugene O'Neill's "Reckless", the other is yet to be chosen. If you would like advance notice of date, time and production, please fill in the form below and mail it to: USMC Theatre, 81 St. Mary St., Toronto, M5S 1J4.

Please send me information about the Alumni buffet-theatre nights this year.

WE ARE GOING TO HAVE A PROFESSIONAL ALUMNI DIRECTORY!!!

Work has begun on what many of you have enquired about and have shown a definite interest in, a St. Michael's College Alumni Directory.

The Harris Publishing Company has already very successfully and competently produced such directories for other U of T constituencies and is presently working on others. The company has an excellent reputation in Canada and the United States. This project involves no expense for the College; all finances are handled by the publisher. We all benefit by having a list of alumni arranged not only by year of graduation, but also by other categories, and the Alumni Office receives a professionally researched and newly updated master list.

In a short time you will be receiving in the mail an Alumni Directory Questionnaire. This is being sent to you to give you the opportunity to be listed accurately in this new St. Michael's Alumni Directory.

PLEASE BE SURE TO COMPLETE AND RETURN YOUR DIRECTORY QUESTIONNAIRE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. AND PLEASE BE ASSURED THAT THE INFORMATION YOU GIVE WILL NOT BE MADE AVAILABLE IN ANY WAY TO ANY OUTSIDE AGENCY. IT WILL APPEAR IN THE DIRECTORY AND BE SENT TO THE ALUMNI OFFICE, AND THAT IS ALL.

Once you have returned this questionnaire, your information will be edited and processed by Harris Publishing. Over 11,000 alumni will be included in this new Directory.

If you do not return your questionnaire, there is a possibility you may be inadvertently omitted. Don't take that chance!!! Watch for your questionnaire and return it promptly.

CHRISTIANITY AND CULTURE PROGRAMME CELEBRATES TEN YEARS

When the University of Toronto's Faculty of Arts and Science encouraged the colleges to develop distinctive academic programmes that reflected their traditional strengths and ethos, part of St. Michael's College's response was the Christianity and Culture Programme. With Professor Janine Langan as its first Co-ordinator, this programme grew rapidly both in its course offerings and its enrolment. This steady strengthening of the programme has continued under the present direction of Father Robert Barringer, C.S.B. It is one of the most successful programmes at the College and attracts students from all over the University. This autumn it marks its tenth anniversary with suitable events, some of which are part of the Homecoming Reunion schedule. The Varsity Fund has been, and remains, a principal contributor to the financing of the Christianity and Culture Programme. You have every reason to be proud of this very distinctively St. Michael's academic offering and might wish to join in some, or all, of the following events planned for the Saturday of Homecoming weekend, 21 October:

9:30 A.M.-12:00 Noon
A series of one-half hour slide displays on the theme, Art and Spirituality Yesterday and Today, #400, Alumni Hall

3:00 P.M.- 5:00 P.M.
Dr. George O'Brien, President, University of Rochester, author of God and the New Haven Railway, lecture, with discussion, on undergraduate education.
#400 Alumni Hall.

5:00 P.M.- 6:00 P.M.
Tea with the Tallis Choir. Musical selections with a presentation by choir members and Peter Walker, Director of the Tallis Choir. Tea is served. Charbonnel Lounge.

Alumni who were part of the programme will be receiving further information about this tenth anniversary reunion, but all St. Michael's alumni and friends are welcome to attend the above events.

FATHER ROBERT SCOLLARD, C.S.B. 2T8 HONOURED FOR ALUMNI VOLUNTEER SERVICE

To anyone who knows him, it will come as no surprise that Father Robert Scollard, C.S.B., was among the first recipients of the newly created Arbor Award. The award was presented by U of T President George Connell at a special reception at the President's Home on the evening of 10 May. This award is given by the University of Toronto to recognize outstanding alumni volunteers who have demonstrated a long and faithful commitment to the University through countless hours of volunteer time.

For many years Father Scollard has volunteered his services in many formal ways as College Librarian, and Archivist. The gardens that bring such pleasure to us all during the summer months are in part the result of his labours and advice. For years alumni returning for Homecomings, Spring Reunions and other College gatherings have enjoyed the pictorial historical displays he prepared for the occasions. His meticulous work has produced important lists of St. Michael's graduates and chronologies of St. Michael's history. His concern for his own classmates has led him to issue a periodic newsletter for them, enabling them to keep in touch with the College and each other. Families of deceased alumni will remember his presence to them in various ways at the times of their grief, and not a few alumni and friends of St. Michael's have experienced, and still experience, his ministry during illness.

In addition, for only the second time in the six decades of its existence (the last time was in 1979 in celebration of the 50th anniversary of foundation), the Institute will award honourary doctorates. Krapiec, O.P., Professor of Philosophy and former Rector of Catholic University of Lublin; Dom Jean Leclercq, O.S.B., Abbaye de Clervaux; Joseph Wey, C.S.B., former Superior General of the Congregation of the Priests of St. Basil and Emeritus Fellow. The Convocation Address will be given by Father Boyle.

The Acting President and Fellows of the Institute cordially invite the alumni and friends of USMC, in particular those who may have taken courses at PIMS or attended lectures given by its Fellows, to join them at the Special convocation, and the reception following in the Odette Lounge of Brennan Hall.

Alumni Association Sponsors "Four Catholic Writers" Series

By Diane Karnay 8T1

This fall's special "alumni sponsored" Continuing Education course is Dr. Brigid Elson's consideration of the writing and lives of four Catholic writers: Thomas Merton, Edith Stein, Flannery O'Connor and Julien Green.

Dr. Elson graduated from St. Michael's ('61) in Honours Philosophy and History and went on to doctoral studies in French Literature at U of T. A freelance writer and lecturer, Dr. Elson offers a precis of the series as follows:

"Flannery O'Connor, Thomas Merton, Edith Stein and Julien Green are four major twentieth century writers who have a number of things in common, not least of which was their adherence to Roman Catholicism in the context of societies deeply antagonistic to institutional religion. Each of these greatly gifted intellectuals made the choice of faith consciously as a result of grave personal crises which also, in three cases, coincided with, and were shaped by, the political catastrophes of the middle of this century.

Once they had committed themselves to this largest and oldest branch of institutional Christianity, new problems and crises occurred in a complex pattern of interplay between personal temperaments and external constraints. In all four instances, however, the choice to be a Catholic, once made, was never revoked. It is also true that "being a Catholic" involved, for each of these rich personalities, a separate road on which each became radically individuated.

This course will examine the strategies these writers used to deal with the problem of being a self-reflecting Christian. The evidence examined includes their autobiographies, diaries and letters, as well as biographical material from third party sources. Since the choice of faith was crucial to their self-concept, an attempt will be made to characterize their styles of Catholicism."

Readings will include:
The Habit of Being by Flannery O'Connor; Memories of Happy Days, by Julien Green; Life in a Jewish Family, An Autobiography, by Edith Stein, and The Seven Storey Mountain, by Thomas Merton.

THE PRESIDENT'S LECTURE 1989

On Tuesday 11 April, Sir Michael Howard, this year's President's Lecturer, spoke to an overflow audience of six hundred in the Assembly Hall, Upper Brennan and Brennan Lounge in Odette Centre. The audience in Brennan Lounge participated through closed circuit television.

Under the title of 'Structure and Process in History', Sir Michael addressed the significance of history for present action. In answer to the question, 'What are historians for?', he pointed out in a wide-ranging and closely reasoned paper that, throughout most of western civilization, the utility of history has been taken for granted. Today, for a variety of reasons, this is no longer the case. He noted that in all probability, very few historians today, "except for a minority of professing Marxists, would make any such claim." But, he pointed out, this was not always so. "For the best part of a thousand years," he reminded his audience, "western man studied the past in expectation that he would receive both political and moral guidance from doing so, and historians have been on the whole only too happy to oblige."

Fr. James McConica, C.S.B., Sir Michael Howard, and USMC Chancellor, His Eminence Emmett Cardinal Carter. Photo: Scott Finley

In an illuminating historiographical presentation, he noted a fundamental change in that attitude to history with the advent of Edward Gibbon, who saw classical antiquity "as a time of horror rather than of heroism." Indeed the central issues in the dominant attitude to history and its usefulness all stem from the period of the Enlightenment, and he found in the work of Kant a point of reference from which to defend the view that we can indeed learn from the past, and that from its study, "we learn not only what we have been, but what we now are, and what we might become."

It was a brilliant evening, and the Lecturer carried on the tradition of previous President's Lecturers.

THANK YOU, FATHER BROWN!!! WELCOME, FATHER IVERSEN!!!

Father William Brown, C.S.B., has retired from the position of St. Michael's College Awards Officer after eight years of extraordinary service. The tasks of the Awards Officer include counselling, careful attention to detail, listening, pleading the causes of certain students, and endless patience. Father Brown carried out these tasks with humour, prudence, insight and graciousness, as literally thousands of students and alumni can testify. He has moved to the Basilian Fathers residence at Michael Power-St. Joseph High School, whence he came to St. Michael's in 1981. He will be sorely missed.

Fortunately for the College and for the students, Father Brown's replacement is a well-known and accomplished figure at St. Michael's, Father Norman Iversen, C.S.B. 5T3. Until illness forced his retirement from the post of Treasurer of St. Michael's, Father Iversen had managed the financial and material matters of the College, had taught History and been involved in many ways with student life. He has recently been Treasurer for the local Basilian Community, and we rejoice that his health now allows him to return to fuller contact with students.

CAMPUS NOTES

• St. Michael's President, Father James McConica, C.S.B., was one of three Canadian representatives chosen to attend a ten-day April conference in Rome of heads of major Catholic universities around the world. This meeting of one hundred and sixty academic representatives and fifteen bishops was convened by the Congregation of Catholic Universities to examine, criticize, and revise a draft document intended to advise the Pope in the preparation of an Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities. Father McConica was a member of the group that considered the relations between the Church and Civil Society; its mandate included the critical portions of the document dealing with institutional autonomy and academic freedom. He reported that the meeting concluded in an atmosphere of collegiality and optimism.

His Holiness Pope John Paul II and Father James K. McConica, C.S.B.

• Thirty five members of the staff and faculty of St. Michael's spent the afternoon and evening of 9 May on retreat together at St. Augustine's Seminary. The day was composed of two talks by Father Walter Principe, C.S.B., of the Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies, times for personal reflection, dinner and the celebration of Mass. This is the second year such a retreat has been provided.

• Professor Richard Toporoski has been appointed Coordinator of Undergraduate Studies in the U of T Department of Classics.

• St. Michael's College students were victorious over Victoria in 'Bloodfest '89'. A Red Cross clinic was set up in Brennan Lounge in the Odette Student Centre and, in the words of one victor, "we bled more then they did."

St. Basil's restored and refurbished spire. Some buildings may be higher, but nothing is loftier.

Some alumni may remember that that used to be the case in some other encounters with Vic.

• Several undergraduates have been involved during the school year and through the summer delivering meals to the frail and elderly in the Mid-Toronto Community Services' meals-on-wheels programme. The Director of Community Services has written to the College to express gratitude for the work of the students, saying, "With youth's problems highlighted daily in the media, it is heart-warming to know that there are also many others who are caring individuals." The many St. Michael's students involved in various volunteer services prompts us to say, "Amen!"

• Undergraduate Bernadette Casey was named U of T Female Athlete of the Year. She captained three field hockey championship teams in 1988-89, was All-Canadian for three consecutive years and was the recipient of several other awards and honours. She is majoring in Criminology.

• Professor Anna Maria Dabrowski, Classics Department, received honourable mention by the U of T Association of Part Time Students and the Students' Administrative Council for excellence in undergraduate teaching.

• Very Reverend Petro Bilaniuk, Professor of Religious Studies and Theology, was elevated to the rank and dignity of the Right Reverend Mitrophoric Archpriest by His Grace Isidore Borecky, Ukrainian Catholic Bishop of Toronto and eastern Canada.

• Caroline DiGiovanni 7T0 directed a series on Italian Canadian writers in the St. Michael's Continuing Education programme. Two of her guest authors were Darlene Madott 7T5 and Frank Paci 7T0.

• On the evening of 30 March the College Chapel was the site of the St. Thomas More Guild Mass for those called to the Ontario Bar on 31 March. Among the many candidates and their parents in attendance were several alumni. Fr. James McConica, C.S.B., was the celebrant and homilist.

• More and Teefy House have undergone extensive work during the summer. Some facilities were renewed, but much of the work was required to keep the buildings up to the requirements of the building and fire codes.

• Other work on the campus included the painting of the wood trim on some of the Elmsley Place houses, the repair of the steeple of St. Basil's Church, which involved enclosing the entire steeple in scaffolding for over three months, installation of graceful lamp-post lighting in the quad as part of increased security measures, and initiating, with the help of Don Healy 6T8, the planning and implementation of a whole new signage system for the campus.

A new look to see the quad better by.

BRANCHES—BRANCHES—BRANCHES

The policy of developing our out-of-town alumni branches, announced two years ago by SMC Alumni President Chris Driscoll 7T6, continues to be implemented with success. St. Michael's will on occasion have branch gatherings, and at the same time we shall continue our recently adopted practice of joining with the U of T when it hosts a branch gathering, and with the Canadian Universities' Alumni Associations in various cities in the United States which have yearly social gatherings. Perhaps the best way to make all this clear is to tell you what has happened thus far in 1989.

Bruce 6T3 and Brenda McGuire Duncan 6T5, Krisia Jarmicki 6T7, Anna Olsthoorn 7T7. Edmonton

First of all, on 23 January the U of T Edmonton Alumni branch, with the assistance of Rivi Frankle, Director of the U of T Department of Alumni Affairs, sponsored an evening with the Orford String Quartet. All U of T grads, including St. Michael's, were notified by the University. The St. Michael's Alumni Office, following the practice adopted for similar events in Chicago and Ottawa, sent a letter to the SMC alumni in the Edmonton area, reinforcing the original invitation and indicating that Fr. Madden, Director of SMC Alumni Affairs, would be present to meet people and answer questions about developments at the College. It was a great evening, and the organizers announced that it was the largest attendance they had ever had for any of their gatherings. Margo Coleman, President of the University of Toronto Alumni Association was also present. St. Michael's was well represented.

On 8 April the Washington, D.C., unit of the Canadian Universities' Alumni Association held a dinner hosted by the University of Manitoba.

Margo Coleman, President UTAA, with Ruth Martin 6T8 and John Karl 7T0. Washington, D.C.

The same mailing procedures outlined above were followed and, again, it was the best attended event there that anyone could remember. The St. Michael's contingent was the largest single group from the U of T. Fr. Madden attended with Margo Coleman and Rivi Frankle. There was a meeting of the U of T grads in a separate room after the dinner. Once more, it was a very pleasant evening. The U of T will be host to this gathering in the next year or two; St. Michael's grads will be called on to help organize the affair.

On 4 May the U of T New York area alumni were guests of the University in the Canada Room of the Canadian Consulate General in the Exxon Building on the Avenue of the Americas. We were welcomed by the Canadian Consul General, a grad of Vic;

Tom Dillon 5T2 (Theresa was there too!); George and Betty Quinlan 5T9. N.Y.

Canadian actor and comedian Frank Shuster, a U of T grad, was present and spoke briefly of our debt to the University. Johnny Wayne had planned to attend with Frank but had to cancel because of illness. It was a wonderful 5:00-7:30 evening reception and the organizers, including SMC 7T6 grad Michael Infuso, deserve much credit, as does Rivi Frankle U of T Director of Alumni Affairs. There were SMC grads from Princeton, Philadelphia, and New Hampshire, as well as the more immediate New York City area. You will be happy, but not surprised, to learn that once more St. Mike's was represented by the largest group of any of the U of T constituencies; also, we closed the place at about 9:00 P.M. Boozer Brown still lives!!! Fr. McConica had planned to attend, but a change in schedule made it impossible. Fr. Madden was able to be there and joined U of T Vice-President Gordon Cressy, Rivi Frankle, and Frank

Matt 8T6 and Dan 5T8 Regan with Jean Carmichael Loftus 6T0 and Marcie Mugan Scileppi 6T0. N.Y.

Shuster as representatives of the University.

Other branch gatherings are in the very initial stages of planning. Alumni in Vancouver, Victoria, and Sudbury stay tuned! If any of you want to organize an SMC alumni get-together in your locale, let us know and we shall be happy to help you with it. In the meantime—let the pictures tell the wonderful tales.

FALL HOMECOMING, OCTOBER 20-22: AN EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES

Have we got something for you!!! The classes of 6T9, 7T4, 7T9 and 8T4 may already have heard from their respective Class Reps about this year's Fall Homecoming plans. They are extensive and exciting.

First of all, there will be the regular ALL ALUMNI cash-bar reception on Friday night from 8:30 P.M. until 1:00 A.M. Once again, this will be in conjunction with a Pub Night sponsored by the St. Michael's Student Union. You will be able to mingle with your classmates and other friends at the reception and also, if you wish, relive old 'Pub Memories' while seeing if your dancing holds up when tested against the current steps—come see if "Everything old is new again." And remember, ALL ALUMNI are welcome to this reception.

On Saturday there is truly an embarrassment of riches; you can find the schedule of events in this issue. Again, many of these events are open to ALL ALUMNI. For example, besides the traditional Boozer Brown Memorial Trophy football game between alumni and students, you will have the opportunity of going to the Varsity Blues game in Varsity Stadium, attending one of the two special performances of the award-winning one-act play in the St. Michael's Theatre in Alumni Hall, enjoying the art and spirituality slide displays, hearing the lecture of the President of the University of Rochester on undergraduate education today and join in the discussion, and listening to the wonderful music of the Tallis Choir. And over and above all these attractions, you have the riches of 'U of T Day', the grand open house of the entire University. Information about this will be available at the St. Michael's reception on Friday night 20 October.

The honoured years of 6T9, 7T4, 7T9 and 8T4 are receiving invitations to events planned especially for them: the U of T President's Reception under the big tent in King's College Circle on Saturday afternoon and the complimentary roast beef dinner at St. Michael's Saturday evening. The cash-bar reception before the dinner will continue after.

The official St. Michael's Homecoming schedule will conclude with the traditional Alumni-Student-Faculty Mass on Sunday morning. The Mass will be followed by complimentary coffee and donuts and, again, ALL ALUMNI AND THEIR FAMILIES are welcome to the Mass and refreshments.

As you can see, there is at least a little something for everybody—so, come back to St. Michael's for all or part of Homecoming '89. See what is old and what is new.
